CHARTER COMMISSION TO HOLD SECOND COMMUNITY MEETING

Commission Meets at Kapolei Hale to Gather Input from the Public

HONOLULU, HAWAII, March 24, 2006

The 2005-2006 Honolulu City Charter Commission will hold its second community meeting on Tuesday at Kapolei Hale. Following last week's Kailua meeting, the Commission will continue gathering public input on proposed changes to the City Charter. The public is invited to participate in Tuesday's community meeting:

Tuesday, March 28, 2006 at 6:00 p.m.
Kapolei Hale – Conference Rooms A-D
1000 Uluohia Street in Kapolei

Last week at the Kailua community meeting, the Commission heard testimony from residents, city officials, and representatives of organizations. Participants testified on city department duties, planning and zoning provisions, the Neighborhood Commission, curbside recycling, funding for land conservation and affordable housing, and various other charter proposal topics.

“This is one of the most valuable moments for public participation in the charter revision process,” said Commission Chair Donn Takaki. “All of our meetings are open to the public, but these evenings are specifically dedicated to reaching out and asking for input from around the island. We hope that everyone will take a look at the proposed amendments and tell us what changes they would like to see in the City Charter.”

At the meeting, there will be a short presentation regarding the charter revision process and the proposals under consideration. Then the public will have the opportunity to provide their comments to the Commissioners.

The Charter Commission will hold its third and final community meeting in Hawaii Kai next week:

Tuesday, April 4, 2006 at 6:00 p.m.
Hahaione Elementary School – Cafeteria
595 Pepeekeo Street in Hawaii Kai

LEARN ABOUT THE PROPOSED CHARTER AMENDMENTS. Copies of all proposals are posted as PDF files on the Commission website, <http://www.honolulu.gov/chc>. Hard copies are also available for viewing at the Commission office at 711 Kapiolani Boulevard Suite 1485, or the Municipal Library in the City Council Annex at 558 S. King Street.

Out of 108 proposals submitted to the Commission, 42 proposals remain under consideration. The proposals include the following:

- 10 proposals regarding city departments and directors’ duties
- 3 proposals on elections, Council districts, and term limits
- 7 proposals on the City’s planning and zoning process
- 2 proposals on the Neighborhood Commission and Neighborhood Boards
- 2 proposals on the City budget process
- 5 proposals on ethics and open government
- 3 proposals to establish new agencies and funds
- 4 proposals regarding City Council procedures
- 6 “housekeeping” measures

HOW TO SUBMIT COMMENTS. The public is encouraged to attend the meetings and provide testimony. Register to speak by calling 592-8622 or emailing charter@honolulu.gov, or fill out a sign-up form upon arrival at the meeting. Written testimony can be sent by mail to the Charter Commission, 711 Kapiolani Boulevard, Suite 1485, Honolulu, HI 96813; by fax to 592-8633; and by e-mail to charter@honolulu.gov. See official agendas posted on the Commission website for more information regarding testimony.

NEXT STEPS. Following the three community meetings, the Commission will meet again in April-May to vote on all proposals. Those that pass will be referred to the Commission's Committee on Style, which will prepare amendments and finalized language for the Commission's final approval in summer 2006. Ultimately, the finalized proposed charter amendments will be placed on the 2006 General Election ballot for voters' approval.

ABOUT THE COMMISSION. The Charter Commission is a 13-member appointed body responsible for revising the city charter, the governing document for the City & County of Honolulu. The convening of a Charter Commission provides a rare and important opportunity for major changes to city government. This is only the fourth Charter Commission convened since the adoption of the city charter in 1972.
